

Outcomes that Positively Impact the Lives of Jewish Teens

After extensive research and focus groups, The Jewish Education Project developed these 14 Jewish teen education & engagement outcomes in its role as head of the National Incubator. The outcomes build on four core questions and are organized into eight dimensions—structured to be a helpful tool for professionals and lay leaders as they design and assess teen programs.

Core Questions	8 Dimensions	Outcomes
Who am I?	Bein Adam L'Atzmo/a The Self Dimension	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 Jewish teens have a stronger sense of self. 2 Jewish teens feel a sense of pride about being Jewish.
	Bein Adam L'Hochmato/a The Knowledge Dimension	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 3 Jewish teens have experienced learning that has been both challenging and valuable. 4 Jewish teens have learned things that enable them to be more active participants in Jewish communities
With whom and what am I connected?	Bein Adam L'Zmano/a The Time Dimension	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 5 Jewish teens learn about and positively experience Jewish holidays and Shabbat.
	Bein Adam L'Chavero/a The Human Connected Dimension	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 6 Jewish teens establish strong friendships. 7 Jewish teens develop strong and healthy relationships with their families. 8 Jewish teens develop significant relationships with mentors, role models, and educators. 9 Jewish teens are able to express their values and ethics in relation to Jewish principles and wisdom.
	Bein Adam L'Makomo/a The Spiritual Dimension	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 10 Jewish teens develop the capacity (skills and language) that allows them to grapple with and express their spiritual journeys.
To whom and for what am I responsible in this world?	Bein Adam L'Kehillotav The Communal Dimension	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 11 Jewish teens feel connected to their various communities.
	Bein Adam L'Amo/a The Jewish People Dimension	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 12 Jewish teens develop the desire and commitment to be part of the Jewish people now and in the future. 13 Jewish teens develop a positive relationship to the land, people and State of Israel.
How can I bring about change in this world?	Bein Adam L'Olam/a The Global Dimension	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 14 Jewish teens are inspired and empowered to make a positive difference in various communities and world in which they live.

For more information on the development of these outcomes and other insights about Jewish teens please see Generation Now: Understanding and Engaging Jewish Teens Today at <http://JewishEdProject.org/GenerationNow>